As an agency priority, Denver Arts & Venues is committed to equity, diversity and inclusion (EDI) in all our programs, initiatives and decision-making processes. For this reason, it is important that we ensure all communities are represented in our programs and committee opportunities. This helps us assess whether we are achieving our EDI objectives and informs our future outreach and engagement throughout the city. The information you provide in this questionnaire is available only for internal staff and is not shared. Reporting is only done in aggregate format. Thank you for supporting us in our efforts to strengthen an equitable, diverse and inclusive city!
